ASHINGTON GETTING READY FOR CONGRESS

y Representatives and Senators Have Already rived With Their Families and Secretaries.

SHINGTON, Nov. 29.—Now that sgiving is over but a few days before Congress assembles. y is rapidly filling up with rs of Congress and the Senate, milies, secretaries and friends. ming session promises to be in- g, if not exciting. The city s usual, be replete with the who habitually spend the sea- re and from time to time it crowded with conventions. A nvention, that of the Water- provement, is expected here th, and it is said that there as many as 5,000 delegates. s of those will, doubtless, their families, and thus, early season the hotels and boarding will have a full complement s. During the summer sea- building, especially of apart- uses, has gone on more rapid- Washington than during any summer and many commo- partment houses have been d they are no sooner finished y are taken up by the great who have contracted or are the apartment house habit. s of houses have also been blocks, many of them sold. y is increasing in population th. Doubtless in time it will splendor to the great capi- the old world. Palatial houses been built, others are in the of construction. One of the magnificent of these will be the French Embassy building. It will eclipse in grandeur that of the British Embassy in Connecticut avenue. The latter has been for a long time the most imposing diplomatic residence in Washington. The British Government was the first to buy the ground and build a home for its representative at Washington and for a long time the British Embassy building was the most commodious of all the diplomatic residences. In recent years, however, a dozen or more residences of millionaires and multi-millionaires have eclipsed in spaciousness and elegance the home of the British Embassy. It has still, however, held the first place in its class. No other foreign embassy can compare with it. Now, however, the one planned by the French government, and which will be built almost entirely of material brought from France and the French provinces, will eclipse in spaciousness and elegance that of Great Britain. The French Embassy building will occupy ground on Twenty-second and Decatur streets. It will have a frontage of 385 feet on one street with a depth of 213 feet, and it will be surrounded by landscape gardens such as are peculiar to the more imposing residences of France and especially of Paris.

It will be remembered that Representative Longworth from Ohio, the son-in-law of Ex-President Roosevelt, during the last session presented a bill in the House of Representatives looking to the purchase of residences in foreign capitals as homes of representatives of this country at foreign courts. It is difficult to make the average American realize the importance of having our foreign representatives established with dignity and elegance as to their place of residence abroad. The average foreigner, even if he is an intelligent Parisian, Londoner or Berliner, is so accustomed to judging by exterior appearances that he is incapable of appreciating or respecting a nation or a people until he has been impressed by a favorable mise-en-scene. It is just as important to the Nation that we shall make a good appearance, or, as the saying is, "put our best foot forward" abroad, as it is to the family that "Johnny shall have his face washed, his hair combed and his shoestrings tied when he is sent to school."

Apropos of foreign missions, the President of the United States will have to appoint two ambassadors at an early date, one to Great Britain and another to France; and, also, possibly an ambassador to Germany to succeed Mr. Hill, who is now visiting in this country and is being entertained at the various embassies in Washington. It is not easy to find an ambassador fully qualified for these posts. Thirty or forty years ago the Americans now old enough to be ambassadors were in school. It was of little importance that they should know any other than the English language. The representative at the Court of St. James can get along very well without a knowledge of French, and, although Mr. Whitelaw Reid was ambassador to France ten years ago and filled that post with credit, it is doubtful if he can speak French half as well as the present French Ambassador, Mr. Jusserand, in Washington, can speak English. Our late ambassadors to France, Mr. White and General Porter, both spoke French fluently. A language half acquired after the years of maturity can never be spoken with ease, and anyone who remembers his difficulty in finding the right word at the right moment in his native tongue can imagine how that difficulty will be increased when the language is other than his vernacular. There are two prominent men in the public eye for these foreign missions. One is Mr. John Hays Hammon, and the other is Mr. Seth Low. Both are accomplished gentlemen, both, I believe, are linguists and both are possessed of great wealth, the last of which possessions appears to be necessary to our representatives abroad, for the salaries fixed by law, even for our ambassadors of the first class, are less than those paid by foreign countries to their representatives here and elsewhere.

New Disease Attacks Grapefruit and Oranges

Bulletin 131, by Prof. H. S. of the Florida Agricultural ent Station, calls attention to disease which has attacked , oranges and tangerines in ions of this State. Following icle relative to this new of citrus fruits, and it should ully read by every grower:

soft-rot has this year made rance in a serious form on , oranges and tangerines in of counties in Florida. At ent time it appears to be a which, if not checked, will large quantities of fruit.

disease appears to attack fruits on the trees, after ne colored, and to cause them in some groves many of the have been reported as drop- this cause. The disease develop on the fruit after ed.

The soften- ends inward along the fibers , and then outward into the . At first the inside of the ains almost unchanged in , as the softening goes on ed pulp turns dull brown. ening, or softening, is quite from the well-known citrus due to the withertip fungus, mon molds. In the rotting e fruit due to the withertip e rind becomes darkened in rown spots before the inside is injured, if it is injured rotting of citrus fruits due to the Penicillium fungi, or molds, as they are usually called, a softening takes place, but it is not confined to the stem end. A moldy odor is perceptible; and, as the rotting progresses, a green or blue mat of fungus spores is produced.

"Microscopical examination of the diseased fruits showed that the softened tissue was filled with colorless fungus threads, which branched many times. This fungus is different from any yet found in connection with rotting citrus fruits, and it appears to be the cause of the peculiar softening. Infection experiments are in progress to prove this point.

"As the pathologist has not yet had an opportunity to make experiments in the control of this disease, he can give only a suggestion as to treatments. If the fungus enters while the fruit is on the tree, as seems probable, it is possible that spraying with ammoniacal solution of copper carbonate would be fairly effective in checking the dropping of fruit from this cause.

"In order to make a study of this disease, and to ascertain its severity and distribution, the Plant Pathologist desires to get specimens from as many localities as possible, and to receive all the information he can in regard to it. Any grower who is troubled with such a soft rotting of citrus fruits is requested to send two or three affected fruits to the Plant Pathologist, Agricultural Experiment Station, Gainesville, Fla. Everyone who will do so will be advised what to do for the trouble, as soon as results of the work are available."

A little want ad. will accomplish big results.

RICHARDSON UNDER ARREST.

Well-Known Citizen of Dayville Charged With Shooting at Waters.

Charged with shooting at E. H. Waters, a hunter, on his place at Dayville a few days ago, J. B. Richardson, a well-known citizen and farmer of the Dayville section, was arrested by Deputy Sheriff Bruton and brought to Gainesville Saturday.

Mr. Richardson was released upon his own recognizance when arrested, and later came to the city, where the case was compromised without resorting to the County Judge's Court. The matter was amicably adjusted, as Mr. Richardson evidently proved to Mr. Waters that it was no intention to shoot at him or his dog, but merely to try and "scare the hunter" who had encroached upon posted land.

Both the plaintiff and defendant are well known in this section, and mutual friends are glad to know there will be no ill feeling over the matter, which is now understood.

If its worth more to someone else than to you—no matter what it is—a want ad will be a good investment.

MAY FORCE GOMEZ TO RETIRE AS PRESIDENT

Negroes Have Become Dissatisfied and Are Forming a Political Party of Their Own.

HAVANA, Nov. 29.—Not since the downfall of the administration of President Palma has the political atmosphere of Cuba been more obscure and more laden with suggestions of trouble than it is at the present time. The re-established republic is scarcely nine months old, and already rumors have become persistent that some way is being sought to secure the retirement of President Gomez, either by persuasion or by compulsion, and place Vice-President Zayas at the head of the nation.

When General Gomez received the post of chief of magistrate at the hands of Governor Magoon, the followers of Vice-President Zayas stood shoulder to shoulder with those of the president, and even the conservative opposition which had sustained the banner of General Menocal in the campaign of the previous summer lent him their loyal support, in the determination to give the new administration a fair trial. That they regard the trial as a failure is evidenced by their manifesto issued shortly before the reconvening of congress, in which they declared their intention of beginning an active campaign against the administration.

Probably the most serious condition that the president is now facing is that resulting from the continued failure of efforts to effect a complete fusion between his partisans, and those of Vice-President Zayas.

Another disquieting feature of the situation is the renewal of agitation for the formation of a negro party. Steps preliminary to organization were taken at a meeting of colored men in the province of Oriente. For some weeks past, Havana has been the mecca for local colored leaders from all sections of the island, who have come to confer with Senator Morua Delgado, president of the senate, and acknowledged leader of his race, in whose honor a great demonstration was recently held in Havana.

The grievance of the negroes is that they have not been accorded the number of offices to which they feel that they are entitled.

Professional Baseball Player Turns Burglar

NASHVILLE, Tenn., Nov. 29.—Lee Fisher, a professional baseball player, was arrested here yesterday afternoon and confessed to having robbed the home of E. T. Lewis, a prominent business man, Saturday night. The burglary was a most unusual one.

For an hour and a half Fisher leisurely ransacked the room of Misses Nannie and Lillian Lewis, while the young ladies lay in bed and feigned sleep. Suppressing their alarm and excitement, they bravely acted the unconscious role, fearing, as they said later, that should they cry out their father would rush in and be murdered by the burglar. Even when the intruder deliberately caught hold of and examined Miss Nannie's hand in a search for finger rings, the girls apparently slept on. Finally, however, the tension was too great when Fisher held a lighted match so close to Miss Lillian's face that it seemed as if her hair would be singed.

"Who are you?" cried the girl as she raised herself to a sitting position. Hesitating a moment, as if to get his bearings, the burglar rushed to an open window and leaped to the ground just as Mr. Lewis entered the door of his daughters' room, attracted by their cries. The robber escaped, but from the good description furnished by the young women the police soon located him yesterday. Fisher is 20 years old and last season played ball with the Athens, Ala., team, an independent professional club.

Fisher was taken before the Misses Lewis yesterday afternoon and positively identified by them. His confessions were made in the presence of police officers and newspaper reporters. It is said that Fisher had been arrested before on charges of burglary.

A fire started in the Snell and Hamlet orange grove, just north of St. Petersburg, Thursday afternoon, and before the friends and neighbors could subdue the flames quite an acre was burned. Some of the trees were badly scorched, the tall weeds and grass burning like tinder, and the fire being fanned by a good breeze.

Auto Carries Telephone While on Touring Trip

Something new in telephone work during an automobile run was developed the other day in Texas. The awakening of the South to a keen interest in the motor car has extended down to the Lone Star State.

One of the numerous reliability runs was conducted between San Antonio and Dallas. Among the entrants was D. A. Walker, the president of a telephone company, with a big car carrying a portable telephone.

By means of a long fishing pole with a hook at the end, Mr. Walker was enabled at any time to ring up any connecting point along the lines without getting out of his car.

The usefulness of this member of the touring party can be appreciated by some of the things which Mr. Walker did for the party while en route.

One day, while many miles from any station, he made arrangements for the Governor of Texas to be entertained by the auto men at dinner where the night stop was made.

If a car broke down the wire along the roadside was tapped and messages for relief were promptly sent.

Points ahead were kept well informed of the progress of the cars, from time to time, and the usefulness of the plan was demonstrated many times.

HOWE'S SHOWS DREW MAGNIFICENT CROWD

PEOPLE CAME FROM EVERYWHERE TO SEE BIG CIRCUS.

The Parade Reminded One of the Olden Time, Although It Was Magnificent—Crowd Pleased.

The festival treat of the season so far in Gainesville was Howe's Great London Shows, which appeared here to two good houses Monday, and all who attended were delighted with the entertainment, which proved above the average of circus performances.

As early as daylight, it seemed to some, the crowds began to gather, and by 9 o'clock the streets were well filled with people from all sections, some of them coming by private team as far as forty miles.

Those who did come, however, were not disappointed, as inquiry developed the fact that this great show was the best they had seen for many years—since the days of John Robinson, in fact.

The parade in the morning was a little late, but that had no effect upon the grand brilliancy and lustre of the occasion. What made those who saw it feel more enthusiastic was the "old-fashionedness" of the procession which wended its way down modern streets, nearly a mile in length. When the front of the parade was opposite the Dutton Bank, the rear had not left the show ground, more than a half mile away, and it was said that when the front returned to the show ground the rear had not made its final circle around the square.

It has been said that the parade was "old-fashioned," and so it was, which made it all the more attractive. There was no brilliant attempt at new and modern acrobatic stunts, which usually spoils a circus of the old type, but the long procession showed up circus life pure and simple and sincere—just a fun-maker—which made the old-time tent shows so popular. There was plenty of fine costumes and magnificent horses, but an air of "the circus of the old" that appealed to even the pioneers of this section and delighted the children.

Every act at the Howe Show was a good act, void of any fraud, and altogether it was the best circus this section has seen for many years. Another feature of the show was the absence of "graft games," which usually follow a show of this kind.

There were sixty-six fine horses in the parade.

JIM "JUMPED" HIS JOB.

Jim Witherspoon, a well-known negro restaurant keeper who has been engaged in conducting a small restaurant and cold drink stand at the corner of East Main street S. and East Masonic street for the benefit and accommodation of laborers on the Government building, has folded his tent and quietly sneaked away, leaving several furniture dealers, grocers, and his landlady in debt.

Witherspoon evidently had an eye to business, as he realized that there would be considerable traffic among the day laborers on the Government building, now under course of erection, and where a great many of the day laborer class is employed.

He opened a restaurant and was apparently doing well, as his stove was running eighteen hours of the twenty-four. But Jim could not withstand the prosperity attending his efforts, and suddenly decided to take French leave, with those who had trusted him with the bag to hold.

Jim is gone, but the only parties really out are the landlady and grocers, as the furniture was left intact, Jim never even taking the time to make up his bed and leave the linens in good shape.

Sheriff Ramsey issued a writ of attachment against the furniture and housefurnishings a few days ago, which was probably the direct cause of Jim leaving so suddenly without ceremony.

"Suffered day and night the torment of itching piles. Nothing helped me until I used Doan's Ointment. It cured me permanently."—Hon John R. Garrett, Mayor, Girard, Ala.

OLD THIRTEEN ON DUTY.

Faithful Engine Again Placed in Commission on St. Petersburg Run.

Engine No. 13 of the Atlantic Coast Line, which pulled the first through train on the Jacksonville-St. Petersburg run through this city, and which has been doing faithful service ever since, has been again placed on the run, after having been disabled a few days ago by bursting a flue, while pulling Train No. 39.

"Old 13," as the boys call her, has been mighty faithful. It is seldom that any train this engine pulls is late, as she usually runs just on the minute, and a few days before she was disabled Engineer Larson remarked how faithful she had been.

But 13 got into hard luck last week, when a flue caused all the trouble. The engine did its best, and there was no "cussing or fuming," as Engineer Larson declared it was the most faithful engine he had ever pulled the throttle on.

"You know I love old 13," Mr. Larson said, "because she has always been so reliable. I have been master of that engine for several years, and if she fails to go you may put it down that it is not her fault, because as a rule she always pulls us in on time."

THE WOMAN'S GUILD.

Annual Bazaar Will Be Held Soon, and Promises to Be a Big Thing.

Once more the Woman's Guild of Holy Trinity Church extends to the Gainesville public a cordial invitation to attend and patronize its annual bazaar, which will open at 3 p. m. on Thursday, December 2nd, 1909, and continue during the afternoon and evening.

The ladies of the Guild are especially fortunate in securing the whole lower floor of the elegant Masonic Temple in which to entertain their friends—the public—and would take this occasion to express their appreciation for the privilege of using same. Its advantages are too obvious to cite, and the elegant setting will furnish a rich and appropriate frame for the good things within.

There will be the usual variety of booths, and the several able chairmen will vie in friendly spirit for excellence.

Mrs. H. E. Taylor, whose reputation as a cook and housekeeper is already established, will preside at the market booth, which will present a larger display than usual of toothsome viands, fruit, groceries, bakery products and so forth.

Mrs. Layton is chairman of the candy and flower booth, and her dainty, graceful personality will insure its success, even if she were not sustained with a corps of attractive and capable assistants.

Mrs. Richards has charge of the refreshment booth, which is equivalent to saying that this department will uphold its reputation as a first-class restaurant, with the advantage of the "home flavor" to its menu.

Mrs. Lang will, as chairman of the household booth, offer a display of all that can tempt the practical buyer, and at a most reasonable price.

Mrs. W. W. Hampton presides in the fancy-work booth, and her collection of dainty, useful as well as beautiful articles, insures the visitor a varied assortment from which to choose.

Mrs. Cannon, in charge of the babies' booth, is prepared to make glad the hearts of busy mothers by affording them opportunities of securing, at reasonable rates, the dainty fittings for the little ones, and of the children by the display of dollies.

Lastly, Mrs. Pitts will provide entertainment for the little ones, and so popular is this feature expected to be that the whole lower floor of the Episcopal Rectory will be given up to this purpose. There, in games, song and merry play, they may hold high carnival, and find, too, an opportunity to invest their dimes and nickels in toys, candy and trifles that delight the childish heart.

A Hair Breadth Escape.

Do you know that every time you have a cough or cold and let it run on thinking it will just cure itself you are inviting pneumonia, consumption or some other pulmonary trouble? Don't risk it. Judge Pinnell Seventy-Five.

Judge E. A. Pinnell, our popular attorney and honored citizen, celebrated his seventy-fifth birthday last week. Judge Pinnell is a native of Missouri, and moved with his family to Bronson about 15 years ago. Five years of his young manhood were given in defense of the Southern Confederacy, and like his great chieftain, Jefferson Davis, he will never surrender the conviction that his cause was just. In war he was a brave soldier, retiring with the honors of a captaincy, and in peace he has been an honored, useful citizen, and we wish him many happy returns of his birthday.—Bronson Times-Democrat.

Patrons Show Appreciation of C. W. Park Dramatic Company.

Notwithstanding that there was a circus and other attractions in Gainesville Monday, the big tent of the C. W. Park Dramatic Company was well filled to witness the production of that four-act comedy drama, "Richmond." This was a play full of pathos, as well as magnificent scenery and fun, and those present showed their appreciation by hearty applause. There is no denying the fact that Mr. Park, who is a general favorite personally and professionally here, always draws the crowds. From the big audience last night no one would have ever dreamed that the city was full of attractions for this date.

The show was a continuous one, there being many specialties between the acts. Sam Park and his clever wife (Sam has joined the ranks of the Benedicts since last here) Edna, were good, of course. The Baunas comedy team were better than many of our people have been accustomed to seeing, while the Graham trio, comprising the father and two "kidlets" of two and four years respectively, were as good as anyone would want to see. In all, Mr. Park has got the best show this season that he has ever had—and that is saying a great deal.

Tonight the four-act comedy drama, "The Girl From Texas," will be presented, and those who fail to see the play may regret it afterwards.

Aside from his show, Mr. Park is receiving a genuine old-fashioned welcome here, for the people of Gainesville have learned to like him so well they are glad to see him anyway.

RADIANT HAIR.

New York Society Women's Hair Matched Only by Parisians.

For many years the clever women of Paris have been famed for the magnificent beauty of their hair.

"Glorious hair," a Virginian calls it; "so radiant and luxuriant that it not only attracts but fascinates, and compels unstinted admiration."

But now that the elite of New York, ever anxious to improve their beauty, have learned that Parisian Sage, a remarkable and almost marvelous hair nourisher and beautifier, is almost entirely responsible for the charming hair of the ladies of France, the demand for it has become enormous.

A Philadelphia chemist who analyzed Parisian Sage said: "It is the ideal dressing for the hair. The ingredients are so scientifically combined that Parisian Sage is first of all a hair grower, because it surely destroys dandruff germs, and nourishes the hair roots.

"Second, it puts life, substance and brilliancy into the hair, which improves the attractiveness of any one.

"Third, it is very delicately scented; is not a particle sticky or greasy, and does not contain one atom of anything that could possibly injure scalp or hair."

Parisian Sage is now sold all over America by progressive druggists, and in Gainesville by W. M. Johnson, who is glad to guarantee it to eradicate dandruff, stop falling hair and itching scalp in two weeks or money back.

Price 50 cents. Made in America by Giroux Mfg. Co., Buffalo, N. Y., who fill mail orders. The girl with the Auburn hair is on every package.

A Good Advertisement.

L. C. Kunze of Baltimore spent Sunday in this city. Mr. Kunze is the clever traveling representative of the Falconer Company, lithographers and engravers, Baltimore, and, while his territory does not embrace Gainesville, he stated that he had seen literature regarding Gainesville put out by the White House, and decided to come here for Sunday. He was well pleased with the treatment accorded him at the hotel here, which he declares to be among the best he ever enjoyed in his life, no matter where. The White House booklets, which have been widely distributed, are very handsome, and have accomplished a great deal towards advertising this city.

THE REVIVAL IS CLOSED.

Large Congregations Assembled at Methodist Church Sunday.

The First Methodist church Sunday night was filled with one of the largest congregations ever known in its history, the occasion being the closing exercises of the evangelistic services which have been in progress there for the past two weeks.

The song service was fine. It lasted for half an hour, after which Rev. Dr. Christian delivered an excellent sermon, taking as his text St. Mathew 10:42: "And Whosoever Shall Give to Drink Unto One of the Little Ones a Cup of Cold Water, Only in the Name of a Disciple, Verily I Say Unto You, He Shall in No Wise Lose His Reward."

Dr. Christian delivered a most excellent discourse along the line of this text, and at the close all felt better for having been present.

Everyone who attended these meetings feel that they have proved greatly beneficial to the city, and it was with a source of regret that they bade the evangelist good-bye.

Off to Pensacola.

Hon. Henry S. Chubb, register of the United States land office, Captain Antoine Paul, chief of field staff of this division, and Special Agent Parks, of the general field staff, left Monday for Pensacola, having been summoned to appear as important witnesses before the United States Court at that point.

These gentlemen are witnesses in certain land matters, and may be absent for several days.

NOTICE TO ADVERTISERS.

The Sun cannot guarantee the insertion of advertisements in the Sunday issue unless the copy is handed in early Friday morning. This also applies to changes in advertisements already running in the paper.

Does the rumor that an American syndicate is in line for contract to double-track the Trans-Siberian railroad mean Mr. Hawley has something more than a transcontinental ambition?

The eight-mile ship canal, which is to be cut across Cape Cod, Massachusetts, will shorten the distance between Boston and New York nearly one hundred miles, and will enable vessels to avoid dangerous shoals, which have been held responsible for nearly 2,000 wrecks since 1800.

There is one man in Florida who expresses genuine regret that former Senator Pasco will not be a candidate in the primaries of 1910, and that man is Gen. E. B. Bailey. The General was simply "itching" for another opportunity to train his cannon once more upon his fellow townsman.

And now The Pensacola News shows symptoms of doubting Governor Broward's intention of running for the Senate. Next thing we know The News will be flattering itself that Col. Blount's candidacy has scared the whole flock of candidates out of the political field and left that gentleman no opposition.

The race course at Jacksonville has proven a genuine surprise to people from all over the country, and it is conceded to be the best appointed track in the entire South. The betting ring is kept free of "touts" and everything is conducted upon the highest plane. Even the color line is drawn there, which we have never before seen at a race track.

If either Griggs or Kehoe succeeds in wresting the Congressional plum from Dannette Mays over in the Third district after he has served but one term, the successful one will have accomplished a political feat not heretofore recorded in Florida during the recollection of the writer. But factional feeling among Democrats in the Third district outweighs everything else, and it will be the same fight of two years ago over again.

The Jacksonville Carnival, which closed last Saturday night, was the best conducted affair of the kind ever held in Florida. It was a street affair, the various attractions, which were of a higher class than those heretofore seen at carnivals there, being scattered all over the city, and all the business men expressed themselves as satisfied with the manner in which the enterprise was conducted. The crowds were immense during the entire week, and Major Cromwell Gibbons and his associates are to be congratulated upon the success which attended their efforts to afford the people a week of genuine pleasure.

OUR FOREIGN DEBT.

Several important questions have arisen which make the extent of our foreign indebtedness a very live issue, says The Wall Street Journal. How far may we be able to draw upon foreign capital to finance our trade expansion, how far can South America draw upon us for the same purpose, and to what extent can Europe, and particularly England, rely upon us for financial support, should political conditions require it? While there is no means of forming an accurate estimate of our indebtedness abroad, the estimates by foreign authorities of European investments here, and the international movements of gold, silver and merchandise, both indicate that the following approximation is sufficiently correct to throw much light upon these questions:

To	Approximate Indebtedness
Great Britain	$2,400,000,000
France	520,000,000
Germany	425,000,000
Netherlands	300,000,000
Belgium	125,000,000
Denmark, Switzerland and Canada	225,000,000
All other countries	25,000,000
Gross debt	$4,020,000,000
Foreign investments of the United States	700,000,000
Net debt	$3,320,000,000

A net debt of $3,320,000,000 does not seem excessive in view of the fact that our various corporations and municipalities issue about $2,200,000,000 worth of new securities per annum; but it is clear that we have already drawn heavily upon Europe to meet the demands of our expanding business. Since 1897, according to estimates based upon the international movements of merchandise, gold and silver, our foreign indebtedness has increased at an average rate of about $156,000,000 yearly; and it is safe to say that during the past few years, the increase has amounted to fully $160,000,000 per annum. Hence it is not clear that in the near future at least we can draw heavily upon Europe, unless it be to meet some emergency.

Nor can our foreign investments be looked upon as any great source of financial strength; for these investments are largely in Canada, Mexico and South America; and the rate of trade expansion in Canada is so great as to make it very difficult for us to draw gold from there, whereas the supplies of gold in South America are limited, and the demand great.

On the other hand, our indebtedness to Great Britain is so great that it gives her ample power to draw upon us to finance the needs of either her domestic or her South American trade, although she would doubtless be quite loath to use this power, owing to the satisfactory rate of income from her investments in the United States.

To what extent we shall be called upon to finance the needs of South America will depend principally upon the demand for money in Europe. We have become so accustomed to paying our debts to South America through merchandise exports to Europe that it has been almost forgotten that, on our trade balance, we owe South America more than fifty million dollars per annum.

But whatever may be the movements of either gold or capital in the immediate future, the extent of our foreign debt emphasizes the facts that the world is becoming more and more a financial unit, that we have a much greater interest than formerly in the tranquility of Europe, and that Europe derives an increasing benefit from the prosperity of America.

THE FARM CENSUS SCHEDULE.

Census Director Durand at Washington has received from Assistant Director William F. Willoughby the general schedule for the census of agriculture, April 15th next, which Mr. Willoughby, in conjunction with Prof. Le Grande Powers, Chief Statistician for Agriculture, and the advisory board of farm economists and other agricultural experts, has been formulating during the summer.

Director Durand has approved the form and subdivision of the inquiries and has ordered nine million copies of the schedule to be printed by the Government Printing Office in readiness before January 1st, although they will not be placed in the hands of the 45,000 farm enumerators until the usual time before the enumeration date. It is believed there are nearly seven million separate farms in the United States, each requiring a separate schedule.

The schedule is printed on both sides of a single sheet, 13 inches long and 16 inches wide, of white writing paper, 26 by 32 inches. There is a three-inch wide column of instructions to enumerators on both left sides of the sheet so that it can be cut off after the filled-in schedule has been returned to the Census Bureau. This makes the schedule smaller in size and better adapted for handling in tabulation than previous schedules. A separate book of instructions to enumerators supplements the schedule information.

The nine million copies will consume 4,500 reams of paper, which, counting 52 pounds to the ream, will make a weight of 234,000 pounds. The charge for printing, including the cost of paper, will be $13,660. The schedule is so standardized that it will feed on the perfecting press used at the Government Printing Office, which makes 9,000 revolutions per hour and prints four schedules each revolution, or a product of 36,000 per hour, as against the old flat-bed presses used on the 1900 schedules with a speed of from 1,200 to 1,500 revolutions per hour. It will take about three weeks to print them with the press running sixteen hours a day.

ONCE WASTE—NOW WEALTH.

Just a quarter of a century ago cotton was thrown away as absolutely worthless. Today, products representing enormous total are made from this despised cotton seed. Improved methods of crushing and refining the oil resulted in a product equal to the best olive oil in nutritive value. From it is produced a cooking fat (called Cottolene) which is claimed by physicians to be purer and much more wholesome than lard, and it is much more economical as well. As this fact becomes generally known the use of cotton seed oil in the form of Cottolene will be practically unlimited.

and mysterious cases that has ever been known in St. Augustine.

H. R. Herrick of LaFayette county, who reecntly purchased forty acres of land from the Knight Bros., in Homestead, will soon make a vast change in the place, which at present is in good condition, with a young grove on it, and will have a splendid crop of fruit next year.

A grand educational rally was held in Milton last week, at which about two hundred people were present. In Mr. Holloway's talk he mentioned the necessity of having better school buildings. He said that in West Florida today there were only three brick school houses. In the whole State there are about fifty.

The largest pine raft that ever reached the Apalachicola market arrived there last Monday. It was put in the Chattahoochee river just below Eufala, Ala., and was piloted down the river without a mishap. The raft contained 180 logs, and measured 86,624 feet and averaged 484 feet.

Tarragona street in Pensacola is soon to be paved with brick. This street has been a bone of contention between the city and the Louisville and Nashville railroad for the past twelve years, and now it is to be paved, thus settling the question of the city attempting to compel the railroad to keep the street in passable condition. The Louisville and Nashville has signified its intention of paving its share of the street.

The schooner Ira of Pensacola, 75 tons, with a crew of four men, left Apalachicola on Oct. 21st with a load of lumber bound for Key West. On the night of Oct. 23rd a gale of wind struck the Ira at a point 75 miles off Cedar Key. The main mast was broken and the rigging and sails fell off, and the deckload of lumber was washed overboard. It is said that six days later, when the crew reached St. George Island, they were scarcely able to walk, having starved so long.

IMPORTANT TO LAND OWNERS.

The Gainesville Elevator contains important notice to land owners that tax deed will issue to certain lands in Alachua county if not redeemed prior to December 27th, 1909. These lands were sold at tax sale on the 5th day of August, 1907, being bought in by the United Land-Development Company, and if you inadvertently let your property go to sale, or if the same was sold through some mistake, you should at once take the matter up with Clerk Wienges. In some instances the land is assessed as owner unknown.

Charlie Still a "Lyer."

Charlie Harris, for two seasons playing ball with the famous Oak Halls, and one of the boys who "made good" all the time, has been in the city for the past two or three days mingling with friends.

Charlie now holds a good job, as he is the State manager for a big New York potash manufacturing concern, with headquarters in Jacksonville. His friends do not mean it for a fighting joke, but they declare that he was a good "lyer" when he was here, and now he has secured a position as selling lye, which bears out the former statement of his accusers. He takes it good naturedly, however, and says if all his friends will submit to his "lying" he will be satisfied—because it means that he will hold his position.

Isn't there something which only a want ad. can do for you today?

PRISONERS TO CAMP.

Jim Mulberry and Goodrich Cato Must Serve Time at Holder.

Jim Mulberry, colored, was convicted of the crime of selling liquor without a license at the recent term of the Circuit Court and was sentenced to four months at hard labor in the convict camp.

In Justice Sealey's court at Alachua it was decided that Goodrich Cato had stolen some cotton, and Justice Sealey sentenced him to spend sixty-five days in the county jail, which means that, inasmuch as the county leases out the services of the prisoners, he must put in that much time at the mines at Holder, Citrus county.

The men were taken there yesterday by Deputy Sheriff Bruton, and will be compelled to serve their sentences, after which they may decide to "be good" and let liquor and cotton alone.

UNIVERSITY NOTES

The University and Experiment Station had a fine exhibit of cattle, and the Mechanical Engineering Department an attractive exhibit of tools and woodwork, at the Marion County Fair.

Prof. Vernon took his short course men in agriculture last Wednesday to the Marion County Fair. They were given instruction in judging cattle and farm products.

Prof. P. H. Rolfs, Prof. John Scott and Prof. McQuarrie were the judges at the Marion County Fair. Mr. Scott, judge of animals; Mr. Rolfs of farm products.

Dr. A. A. Murphree returned the earlier part of last week from Sewannee, Taylor and LaFayette counties, where he had been in the interest of the educational campaign. He left on Friday for Levy county to speak at Bronson at a teachers' institute held on November 26th and 27th.

Dr. J. A. Thackston addressed the teachers' institute on Thursday night and also teachers' institutes at Starke on Friday and Saturday.

The present enrollment of the University is 164. The enrollment in the agricultural correspondence course is 297.

Mrs. Thos. M. Shackleford of Tallahassee, president of the Federation of Woman's Clubs of Florida, visited the University Nov. 22nd. She attended chapel and afterward made a short talk to the short-course class in agriculture.

The Y. M. C. A. closed its special week of prayer with services appropriate to the Thanksgiving season. Mr. C. H. Overman was the leader.

The Agricultural Club was entertained at its last meeting by an address by Prof. Scott on "Animal Husbandry."

The last meeting of the Athenaeum Club was held at Major E. S. Walker's residence. Major Walker read a very interesting paper on the "Alaskan Experiences." The next meeting will be held at Dr. J. M. Farr's residence.

KEEP YOUR HEAD UNCOVERED.

The Constant Wearing of a Hat Propogates Dandruff Germs.

There are many men who wear their hats practically all the time when awake, and are blessed with a heavy shock of hair; yet if the scalps of these same men once became infested with dandruff germs, the parasites would multiply all the quicker for lack of air. Baldness would ensue as the final result. Newbro's Herpicide kills these germs and stimulates unhealthy hair to abundant growth. Herpicide is a pleasant hair dressing as well as a dandruff cure and contains not an atom of injurious substance. Sold by leading druggists. Send 10c. in stamps for sample to The Herpicide Co., Detroit, Mich.

ALACHUA COUNTY ABSTRACT CO.

Gainesville, Florida

Geo. K. Taylor Honored.

The Columbia (S. C.) State, in its issue of November 24th, announces the election of Geo. K. Taylor as a member of the Board of Public Works of that city, at a salary of $1,000 per annum. Mr. Taylor is the youngest brother of W. B. Taylor, of the Baird Hardware Co., and is well remembered by many Gainesville people, among whom he lived for several years. He has for the past four years been manager of Lorick & Laurance, an extensive hardware institution in Columbia, where he has steadily grown in public favor since taking up his residence there. The Sun congratulates Mr. Taylor upon his success, as well as the people of Columbia upon having secured the services of such a thoroughly up-to-date business man.

A Broken Back.

That pain in your back caused by lumbago, stiff muscles or a strain, is an easy thing to get rid of. Ballard's Snow Liniment cures rheumatism, lumbago, sore and stiff muscles, strains, sprains, cuts, burns, bruises, scalds and all aches and pains. You need a bottle in your house. Sold by W. M. Johnson.

A Double Wedding.

On the evening of November 17th, at the residence of Rev. T. J. Boone, 1722 Main street, Jacksonville, Miss Eleanor M. Hart and Mr. C. D. Taylor, Jr., and Miss Cora Pearl Hart and Mr. Benjamin F. Waas, were quietly married. These young people are pleasantly located at 422 E. Duval street, Jacksonville, Fla. The young ladies are both graduate nurses, having been trained at St. Luke's Hospital, and have been very successful in their chosen profession.

Their many friends wish them a long and happy life.

When you have a cold the first thing to do is have the bowels move. Do not take anything that may constipate—and most old fashioned cough cures do constipate. Try Kennedy's Laxative Cough Syrup. It drives the cold from the system by a free yet gentle action of the bowels; it stops the cough, it is pleasant to take. Children like it. Sold by all druggists.

Some article that is simply "in the way" at your house might, if advertised, be sold to someone who is anxiously looking for it.

The habit of answering ads. that appeal to you is one that will keep you interested in the life you are living and prosperous.

NEWS OF CITY AND COUNTY CONDENSED

A healthy man is a king in his own right; an unhealthy man is an unhappy slave. Burdock Blood Bitters builds up sound health—keeps you well.

Walter Simon of Charleston, the clever traveling representative of Collier's Weekly, who has been making his tour in this State for the past fifteen years, is in the city. Mr. Simon has the sympathy of friends in the loss of his dear wife.

If you have noticed symptoms of kidney trouble, do not delay in taking the most reliable and dependable remedy possible, such as DeWitt's Kidney and Bladder Pills. These wonderful pills are being used with great satisfaction by thousands of people. Try DeWitt's Kidney and Bladder Pills today. Sold by all druggists.

C. W. Bauknight, now retired, but for many years one of the leading merchants and business men of Archer, was in the city yesterday. Mr. Bauknight was charged with having come to the circus, but good-naturedly, "swore he didn't." However, those friends who charged him with this weakness declare that he was watching the parade with the deepest interest—but they didn't want it known around Archer.

Women Suffer Agonies from Diseased Kidneys

And Most Women Do This Not Knowing the Real Cause of their Condition

These poor, suffering women have been led to believe that their misery of mind and body is entirely due to "ills of their sex." Usually the kidneys and bladder are responsible—or largely so. And in such cases, the kidneys and bladder are the organs, that need and must have attention.

Those torturing, enervating sick headaches, dragging pains in back, groin and limbs, bloating and swelling of the extremities, extreme nervousness or hysteria, listlessness and constant tired, worn-out feeling—are almost certain symptoms of disordered and diseased kidneys, bladder and liver.

DeWitt's Kidney and Bladder Pills have, in thousands of cases, been demonstrated as remarkably beneficial in all such conditions of female organism—affording the most prompt relief and permanent benefit.

As an illustration of what these Pills will do, Mrs. P. M. Bray of Columbus, Ga., writes that she was very ill with kidney trouble, and that she is now well—and that these Pills are what cured her.

They are very pleasant to take, and can in no case, produce any deleterious effects upon the system—as syrupy, alcoholic, liquid preparations are apt to do.

E. C. DeWitt & Co., Chicago, Ill. want every man and woman who have the least suspicion that they are afflicted with kidney and bladder diseases to at once write them and a trial box of these Pills will be sent free by return mail postpaid. Do it to-day.

TELEPHONE TALKS

The Long Distance System

One of the most valuable features of our service, to our subscribers and to the public generally, is our connection with the extensive long distance lines of the American Telephone and Telegraph Company and the other associated Bell Telephone companies.

We own thousands of miles of long distance lines in the seven States in which we operate and in addition can connect any telephone in our system with lines extending to any other city in which a Bell Telephone system is operated.

These long distance lines are of the most modern and improved construction and are maintained at a high state of efficiency. The Bell systems operating in various sections of the country, are uniform in their equipment and in their methods of operating.

Only by reason of this close traffic arrangement between the Bell Telephone companies is it possible to get a Bell Telephone almost anywhere, ask for "Long Distance" and be put in communication with almost any point in the country.

This vast network of wires, radiating throughout the nation, is used daily in commerce and for social purposes by the banker, the farmer and citizens in all walks of life and each plant here is an important link in the great chain.

HARDEE—DOKE.

TRENTON, Fla., Nov. 29.—A very pretty wedding was solemnized at 6 o'clock Thursday morning, when Mr. John Sylvester Hardee and Miss Belle Doke were united in holy matrimony by Rev. Sheffield.

The ceremony was performed at the home of the Rev. Sheffield, who lives about three miles from town, and was witnessed by a small circle of relatives and friends.

The bride was arrayed in a beautiful gown of cream silk, trimmed with silver passementerie. The groom was handsomely attired in conventional black.

Immediately after the ceremony the wedding party returned to Trenton, where a number of felicitous friends awaited them, and soon afterward the happy couple left, amid a shower of rice and best wishes, for Newberry, from which place they will start on their wedding trip. The bride's traveling costume was a rich brown suit.

Both Mr. and Mrs. Hardee rank high in Alachua county society, and a large number of friends and acquaintances join in wishing them a long, happy and prosperous life.

MUSICAL MISERY.

When Bagpipes Squeak Out "The Star Spangled Banner."

"I wish," growled a man who made a tour of the British isles, "that the British bandmasters would take a course of instruction in what constitutes the American national airs. Band concerts are the rage all over England, Ireland, Scotland and Wales. During the summer season, probably as a compliment to the hordes of Americans who are flinging away gold for their benefit, they present daily what is generally dubbed 'American national airs.'

"The majority of these bandmasters think 'Dixie' is the national air, because they sagely observe it is the only one which Americans applaud. 'The Star Spangled Banner' is dismal and lugubrious enough under the best of circumstances, but to hear the Scotch bagpipes have a fling at it is indescribable misery. The man who wrote the 'Columbia' hymn would not know his own work as performed in Great Britain, and even the 'Kentucky Home' and other negro ballads get a touch between an Irish jig and a Scotch wail which robs the American visitor of any pleasure which he might experience in hearing songs from home. It may be that British, Scotch and Irish guests on this side of the water get as much discomfort in hearing 'Annie Laurie.' I hope they do, for it would establish a sort of international musical balance."—New York Press.

SLEEP SUPERSTITIONS.

How to Awaken at Any Hour You May Designate.

Sleep is the best cure for waking trouble. Hours for sleep:

Nature gives five,
Custom seven,
Weariness takes nine,
Laziness eleven.

If you wish to arise at a certain hour, before going to bed make with your right foot as many marks on the floor as the hour on which you wish to wake, then go to bed backward.

To insure happy dreams burn some hazelnuts and do the ashes up in a package, which you must place beneath your pillow. You will then dream sweetly.

If you wish ever to marry, never look under the bed.

If a person talks in his sleep, put his hand in a bowl of water and he will tell you all his secrets.

The Hindoos say it is bad luck to sleep with your head to the north, but sleeping with your head to the south promotes longevity.

It is considered by some nations dangerous to sleep while thirsty, for the soul leaves the body in search of water, and if the body awakened too quickly the soul might not have time to return to it, so the body would die.

In Germany the nightmare is believed to be a spectral being which places itself upon the breast of the sleeper, depriving him of the power of utterance or motion.—Philadelphia Press.

Parks of Australian Cities.

Australians, with a fine climate, believe in enjoying themselves, and there are plenty of facilities. Thus in Sydney there are parks and squares and public gardens with a total area of 4,335 acres. Sixteen miles from the city—a shilling excursion train fare—is the picturesque national park, containing 36,810 acres preserved in their natural state. A similar reserve called Kurin-gai Chase, comprising 35,300 acres of land, chiefly of densely wooded hills skirting for many miles around numerous tidal arms of Broken bay, is also held for the enjoyment of the public forever. Melbourne has no fewer than 5,400 acres of recreation grounds in or near the city. Adelaide is surrounded by a belt of park lands and has about 2,300 acres set apart for the public benefit. Nor are Perth and Hobart and Brisbane and some of the fine inland towns less well provided for.—Westminster Gazette.

Malay Race Not Dying Out.

There is a very common idea that the Malay is a race that is dying out, killed in its own country by the enterprise of Chinese, Tamils, Javanese (who, however, are kinsmen of the Malays) and Europeans. To those who come out east expecting to find a few miserable remains of a once powerful race, whose probable fate is that of the Australian aborigines, it comes as a revelation to find a sturdy, independent and courteous race, whose language runs from Suez to Australia and who, so far from dying out, are yearly becoming more numerous.—Java Times.

A Bad Start.

"Ever try this keep-a-smiling proposition?"

"Tried it once, but with poor success. Unfortunately I started the experiment on a day that the boss felt grouchy."—Louisville Courier-Journal.

Tommy—Papa, when a thing is bought it goes to the buyer, doesn't it? Tommy's Papa—Yes, my son. Tommy—Then how is it that when you buy coal it goes to the cellar?

GAINESVILLE,

—THE—

University City.

Gainesville is conceded to be the most enterprising as well as the most beautiful city in the interior of Florida. It is located in the very center of the State, half way between the Atlantic and Gulf Coasts, surrounded by lands of such fertility as to be capable of producing a great variety of crops; in the heart of the truck-growing, phosphate and naval stores belt. She has the best educational advantages in the State, good churches, with edifices which are superior to any town of its size in Florida, with large and consistent congregations; has a climate which cannot be excelled for health and pleasure. All these natural advantages, combined with a progressive and enterprising cosmopolitan citizenship, are sure to make a big city.

There are many natural attractions in close proximity to the city, some of which are Alachua Sink, Paine's Prairie, the Devil's Mill Hopper, Warren's Cave, and Lake Newnan, all of which are reached by private conveyance

Spring Park Stock Farm, the largest and finest live stock farm in the State, is only eight miles west of the city and is reached by a good hard road, affording a most pleasant drive.

The farmers of Alachua county, of which Gainesville is the county seat, "live at home and board at the same place." The temperature is very uniform, scarcely ever reaching the nineties in summer or the twenties in winter. The population of Gainesville is about eight thousand, representing nearly every nationality on the face of the earth, and strangers always meet with a hearty welcome.

The University of Florida for young men and the National Agricultural Experiment Station are located within the corporate limits of the city. In fact, Gainesville has so many things that we must be pardoned if we omit a few of them in the following enumeration of what

F. H. Thompson of Earleton was in the city yesterday. Mr. Thompson is engaged in farming, but is also commissioned deputy tax collector, and Collector Dickinson pays him a fine compliment for efficiency in his work.

Engineer George Estabrook of the Atlantic Coast Line, who has been on a vacation with his wife at the Gainesville Dairy, has returned to his duties, and is now pulling the throttle between Jacksonville and St. Petersburg.

C. A. W. Thomas has returned from points in Levy and Marion counties, where he has been on business for the past three weeks. 'Squire Thomas says the country people are "living high" now, cane-grinding and hog-killing being the order of the day.

George H. Cairns has returned from Lake Butler, where he has the contract for laying sidewalks. He reports excellent progress, and says Lake Butler will soon have one of the most thoroughly covered sidewalk systems of any town its size in the State.

J. E. Wells, the merchant of Archer, was in the city Sunday, having come up to spend the day with his family. Mr. Wells states that business has been good in his town, notwithstanding that the crops were cut short considerably by the drought and other conditions.

Arthur Voyle, manager of the East Florida Telephone Company, has returned from Jacksonville, where he went on business and pleasure combined. Arthur says this was the first carnival he had ever visited in the Florida metropolis, and he was well pleased with what he saw.

F. S. Curl of Archer was in the city yesterday. Mr. Curl, who is a painter and decorator, states that he has been engaged in "touching up" the store and hotel recently completed in Williston by the Williston Manufacturing Company, and that both jobs are up to date in every way.

Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Jarvis are expected to return today from Dalton, Ga., and Nashville, Tenn., where they have been on a visit respectively to to their sons, Dr. Harry Jarvis and Arthur Jarvis. They were absent for several days, and the trip proved of great physical benefit to them.

G. A. Morton of Williston was among those who favored Gainesville with a visit Sunday, having spent the day with friends here. Mr. Morton was at one time one of the most widely-known phosphate miners in Levy county, and made a success of every mine he undertook to manage.

J. C. Hague was a visitor to this city yesterday. Mr. Hague has recently removed from Tyler, and is now located at Otter Creek, where he holds a lucrative position. He is an old friend and subscriber to The Sun, and made this office an agreeable call, requesting that the address of his paper be changed.

Friends of O. B. Bailey are glad to see him out after being confined to his home for some time, and trust that he will soon "be himself again." The best evidence of friendship of the people to Mr. Bailey was shown yesterday, when everybody wanted to stop him, shake his big, clever hand, and extend congratulations on his convalescence.

Sam T. Dell left yesterday for High Springs and other points, where he goes weekly in the interest of the Hartsfield Grocery Company. Sam is regarded as one of the most competent salesmen on the road, though he declares he don't know when he got the reputation. He is not judged by his own opinion, however, but by the opinion of his fellow-travelers.

Mr. and Mrs. James Weeks of Savannah, who have been in this city for the past few days as guests of their daughter, Mrs. J. H. Colson, continue to receive the cordial greeting of friends, and declare they are agreeably surprised at the growth of the city since leaving here. They were former residents of the East End, where they yet have many friends.

Mr. and Mrs. Jatho and children are among the latest to make their home in this city, having come here to reside permanently. They have secured a cottage on West McCormick street. Mr. Jatho is the clever traveling representative of Colgate & Co., New York, and was so impressed with Gainesville that he decided to bring his family and make his home here.

Mr. and Mrs. G. Fulwood McIntosh have returned from the East Coast, where they have been on a bridal tour for the past few days. They were married at the First Methodist church in this city last Wednesday, Rev. W. J. Carpenter of Tampa performing the ceremony. Mr. and Mrs. McIntosh will be at home to their Gainesville and Alachua county friends in future.

A wide-awake, rollicking, enjoyable performance Coburn's Greater Minstrels always return with better singers, cleaner fun, newer attractions and more novel features than all the others combined. A hustling, reliable manager, energetic, enthusiastic performers—the latest in song and story—there is never a dull moment in "Cobe's" big show. There are larger companies and more pretentious advertisers, but there is no better attractions in minstrelsy. It's the newest, sweetest, most reliable and never disappoints. Don't forget the date—Dec. 3rd, at the Baird Theatre.
